

MARC A. ABBOTT (1997-2004)

Marc Abbott graduated cum laude from Dickinson College in 1974 and earned his Juris Doctor from Hofstra University Law School in 1978. He is admitted to the practice of law in the state and federal courts in New York and is currently Special Counsel at Littler, the largest global employment and labor law practice with more than 1300 attorneys in over 75 offices worldwide. (Littler acquired Mr. Abbott's firm, Lawlor, Buchalter & Abbott, Inc.)

Mr. Abbott has extensive experience representing clients before various federal, state and local labor and employment agencies including the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB), Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) and the Department of Labor (DOL). He has served as chief spokesman in hundreds of labor negotiations for clients in the manufacturing, retail, healthcare and service sectors. Most notable among Marc's clients was the New England Patriots and their owner Robert Kraft. Unfortunately, Super Bowl tickets were not part of the retainer agreement.

Marc brought his extensive private sector labor and employment law experience to the PERB Board and could be relied upon to advise the Board of NLRB precedent and to explain real life probable impacts of our decisions on negotiations, mediation and arbitration.

Michael, R. Cuevas, Chairperson 1998-2006,
NYS Public Employment Relations Board